Because nothing less than perfection is your goal,

Because by your example others are inspired to strive to reach their highest potential,

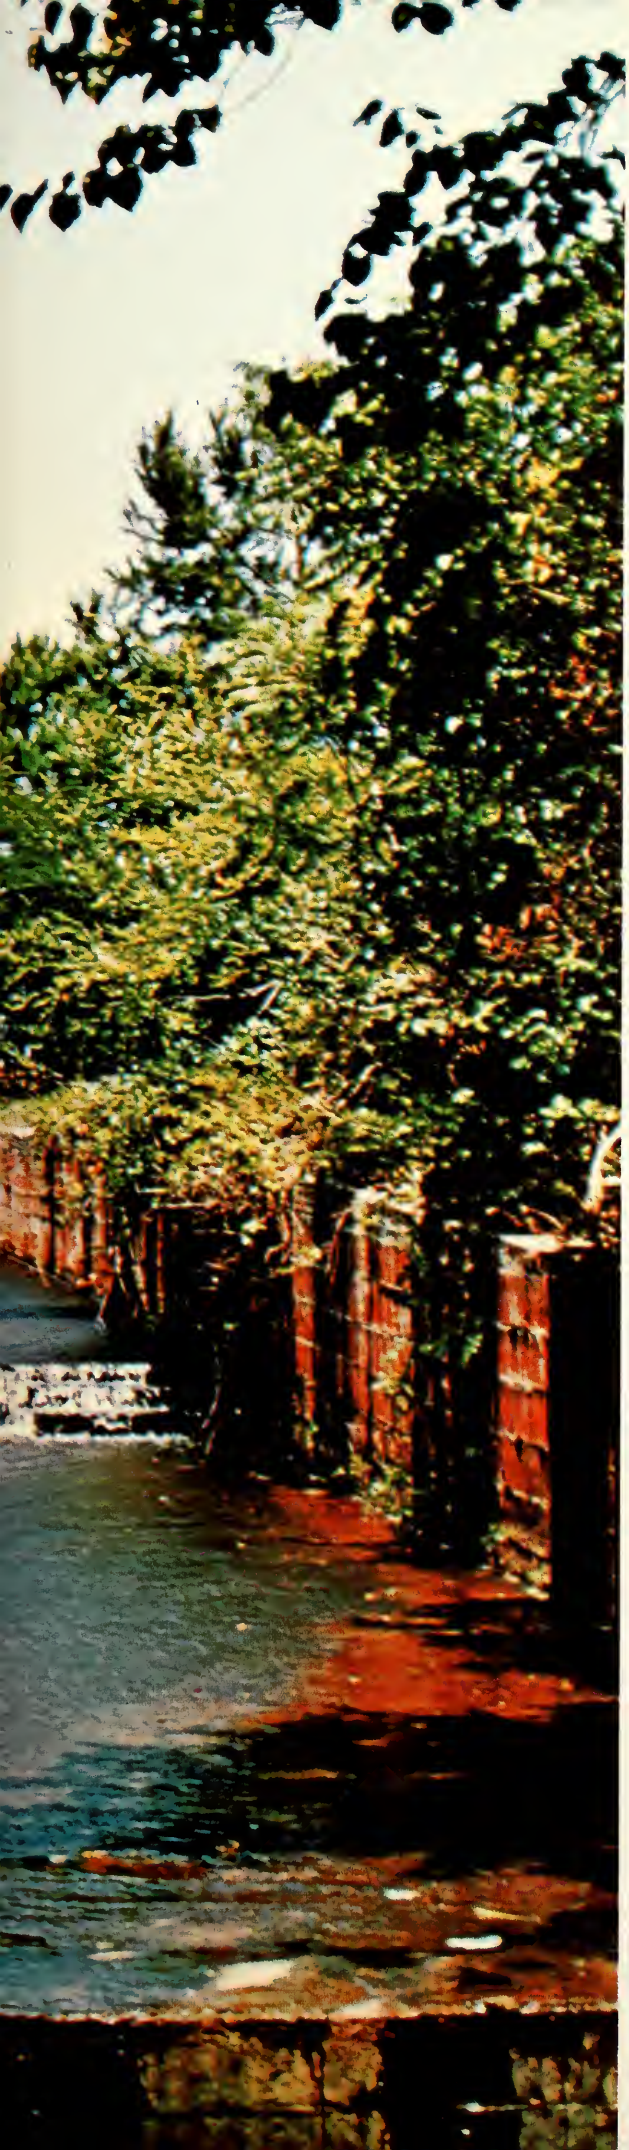
Because of your lasting interest in the students with whom you come in contact,

Because of the far-reaching effects of your services,

Because of your immeasurable contribution to the field of music,

We dedicate this, the 1965 Spectrum, to you,

Max Stephen Noah



There are few earthly things more beautiful than a college,
It is a place where those who hate ignorance may strive to know,
Where those who perceive truth may strive to make others see;
Where seekers and learners alike banded together in the search of knowledge,
Will honor thought in all its finer ways,
Will welcome thinkers in distress or in exile,
Will uphold ever the dignity of thought and learning
And will exact standards in these things.

There are few things more enduring than a college.
Religions may split into sect or heresy,
Dynasties may perish or be supplanted,
But for century after century the college will continue,
And the stream of life will pass through it,
And the thinker and seeker will be bound together
In the undying cause of bringing thought into the world.

Alma Mater

The Woman's College of Georgia

Words by Margaret Meaders

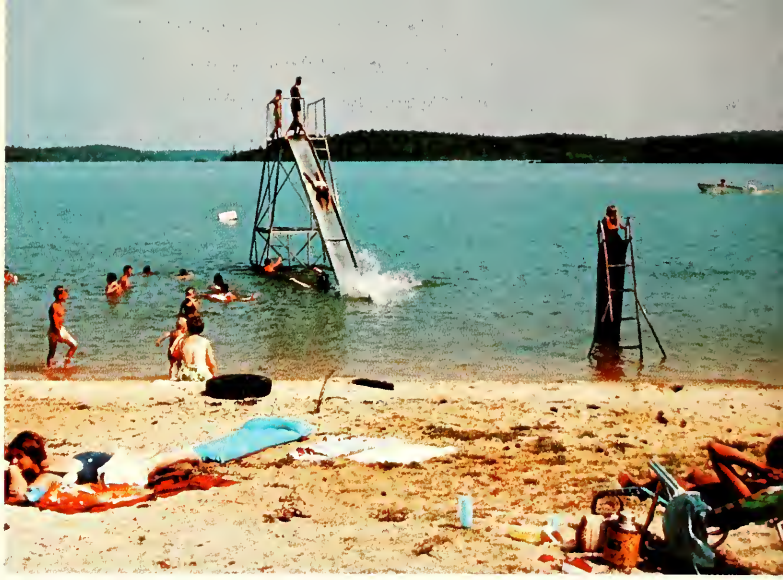
Music by Ruth Sandiford

Alma Mater, Teacher, friend,
Counselor wise and strong.
For virtues taught, for visions wrought,
We praise thee now in song.

For joy of living, for strength in strife,
For friendships that will not fail,
For love of beauty, of God, of life,
Alma Mater, hail! All hail!

The Woman's College of Georgia is much more than its sum total of classrooms, books, final exams, termpapers, students and professors. It is a kaleidoscope of sights and sounds, of moods and emotions, of dreams and ideas, of events and happenings as varied and contrasted as life is itself.

A place . . . where one knows the special camaraderie of the young, their voices lifted in song . . . a warm, cheery smile on a cold, windy day . . . the sound of laughing voices . . . the momentary, exhilarating freedom of running in the wind . . . the serenity in sitting under a tree on a mellow autumn afternoon . . . the scent of gardenias on a spring twilight . . . the anguished sound of a Barbra Streisand record on a lonely Saturday night . . . the warm glow of pride at a favorite professor's compliment.



A place . . . where one knows the frustration and despair that is the act of learning, the bright, shining victory of having learned, and the utter responsibility that is knowledge . . . the pain and agony of having the fancies of childhood broken . . . the bitterness of doubt . . . the strength that comes with the new ideals and beliefs for the future . . . the courage of a final decision.

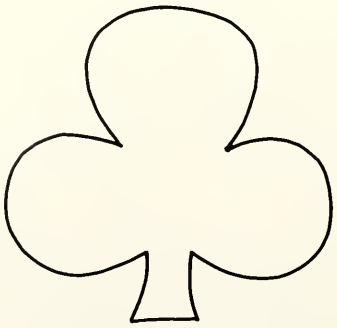
SENIORS



Entering college stirs the mind to new directions . . . to new searchings of self. Each of you Seniors has received a thirst for knowledge, which should inspire you to want to learn more in the future. Your experiences have been many and varied. Not only have they enriched your lives educationally, but also athletically, socially, and spiritually. The seemingly small decisions you have made each day during the past four years will crystalize into tomorrow's habits. It is hoped that the knowledge gained and experienced at The Woman's College of Georgia will help prepare you for the road ahead.

JUNIORS

Donna Womack, Rep. to Judiciary, Carol Bridges, Treasurer, Ann Bruce, Secretary, Ann Herrin, Vice-President, Mr. George Gaines, Sponsor, Janice Rogers, President.

Long past is the confusion of being a freshman—past is the half way point of the sophomore year. This year the juniors have had the responsibility of guiding their sister class and helping them to learn the true meaning of Golden Slipper and college life.

Next year as the Thunderbirds begin their senior year, may they remember these past years of work and preparation for the last step toward their goal. Their enthusiasm, zest for life, and greater maturity will make their goal an easy accomplishment.

STANDING: Martha Prieto, Rep. to Honor Council; Dr. Specht, Sponsor; Susan Hensley, Rep. to CGA; SEATED: Jenell Rogers, Rep. to Judiciary; Ann Smallwood, Vice-President; Donna Hice, Secretary-Treasurer; Jeri Burgdorf, President.

These Sophomores, who survived four courses each quarter their freshman year, returned for a second year to encounter slightly more sophisticated classmates. But the initial adjustment was made, and now it is time to settle down and search for new ideas or new approaches to old ones. Although they are divided and live all over campus, they are united in their abundant enthusiasm which manifests itself in all their undertakings.

The Sophomore Class is worthy of its royal hue. As they strive toward various and often unattainable goals, these young women carry with them an enthusiasm which makes pain, knowledge, and living more exciting. If their unsurpassable spirit is any example of their generation, we need not fear the future, for their royal ardor will overcome any obstacle.

GEORGIA ROUTE OF
THE TWENTIETH CORPS
On the morning of Nov. 23, 1864, the main body of the 20th Corps of the Union Army commanded by Gen. A. S. Williams reached
Milledgeville from Eatonton. The Corps marched down Jackson Street to this point where companies were formed into line.
With bands playing the Corps marched to the Capitol Square and camped on the east side of the Oconee River. General Henry W.
Slocum, commander of the left wing, occupied the Milledgeville Hotel which stood four blocks east of this point.

FRESHMEN

A warm and sunny day in late September and a never-ending stream of over-packed cars heralded the arrival of Terrell's new inhabitants, the Elephant class of '68. After some sort of order was created out of a bewildering array of necessary items, and after the last tearful good-bye to parents, the new freshmen were ready to begin their college careers.

In the first frantic week—crammed with meetings, handbook sessions, receptions, and entertainment—they were introduced to various aspects of WC life. Meetings with faculty advisors and the confusion and chaos of registration hinted of academic affairs soon to come.

Freshman-Junior Week gave them a golden opportunity to learn and love their sister class. Though wet, Annual Hike was an experience no freshman would ever forget.

As they elected their officers, selected Dr. Lounsbury as sponsor, and wrote their class song, their abundant talent, fresh ideas, willingness to accept and share responsibility were evident to all. These attributes, coupled with infectious enthusiasm and optimism, promise a bright future for the Red and Black!

SPORTS

Onward ever onward . . . march the nine hundred.

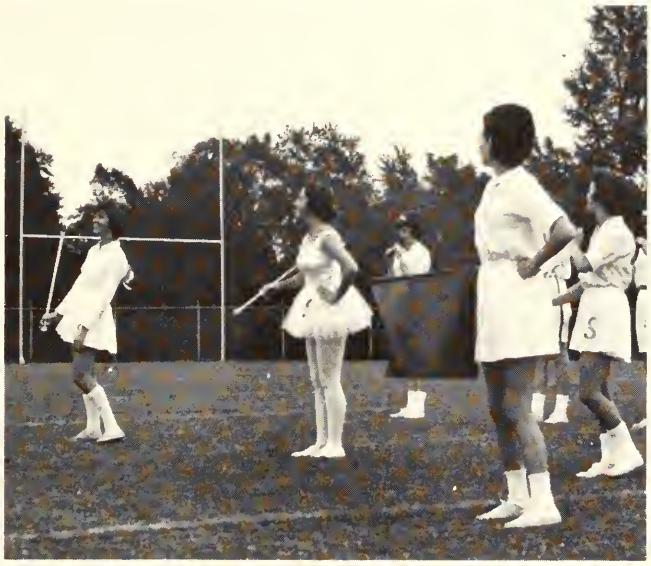
Small in number, loud in volume, the "birds" chirp out their song.

ANNUAL HIKE

At this rate, faculty, you'll never make the S.E.C.

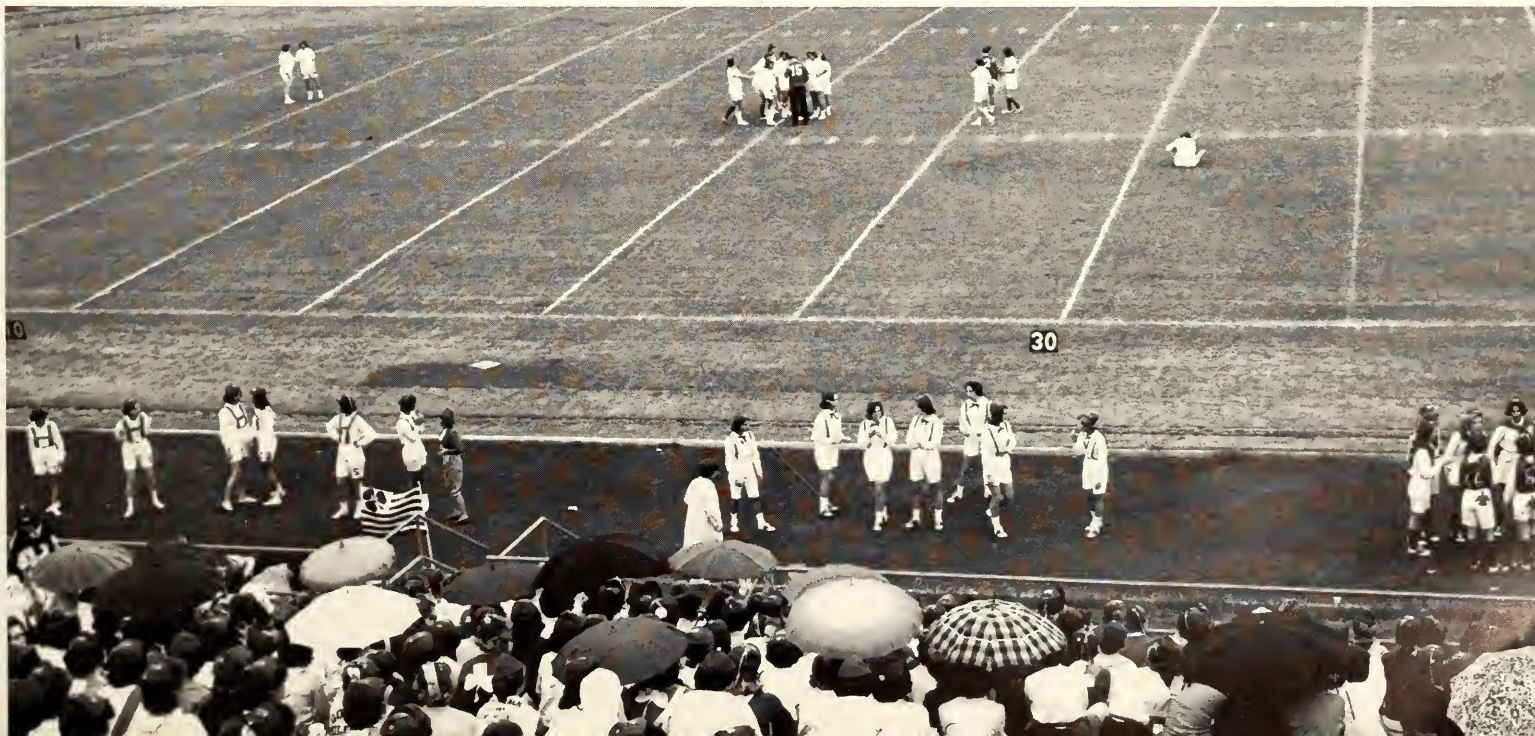
And the band played on.

To each his own—a "goodie sack."



J.K.! The performance begins at eight.

The gang's all here—rain or shine.

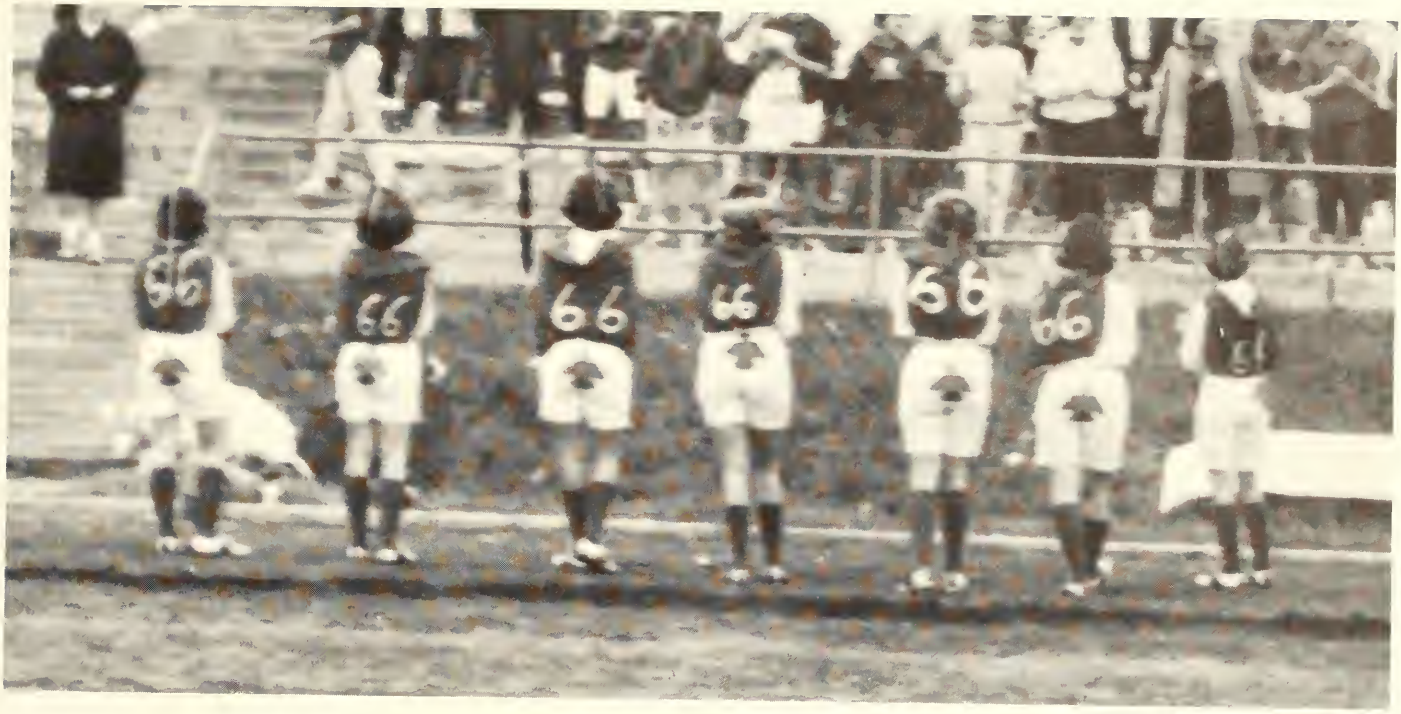


With this form, how could we miss?

Folks, it ain't really that bad!

ANNUAL

The leader of the pack with his court jesters—the Miss Lucys.



On the count of three . . . FLY!

HIKE

"I wanta hold your hand—"

THIS is "hike" position or did you say leap frog, huh, Mr. Thrower?

Volleyball is one of our more graceful sports.

But girls, we need every man we can get.

Attention . . . fire!

VOLLEYBALL

ARCHERY

Come on, Peggy, you have to face them sometime.

Agnes Scott swimmers watch Sherry execute the Catalina at the share session.

A graceful side twist . . .

SWIMMING

MODERN DANCE

Students watch Scott prepare as Gail chews on her fingernail.

As contrasted with the long, lean reach.

As the wheel turns, Sandy comes up for air.

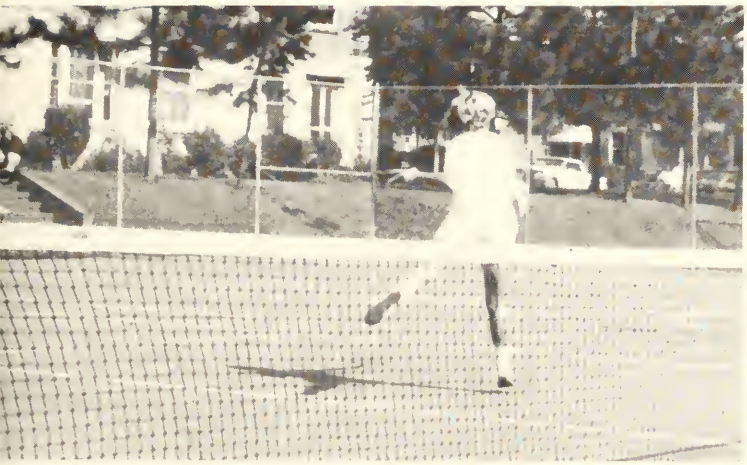
Well, Martha, where are you going?

Nothing to it!

O.K., Square Dancers, we see that you do wear shoes.

TENNIS

Do you always trace a road map in your classes?



"V" for Victory.

Worn them out, Helen?

Who says keeping score is an easy job?

This is cute.

What—two Hollywood observers?!

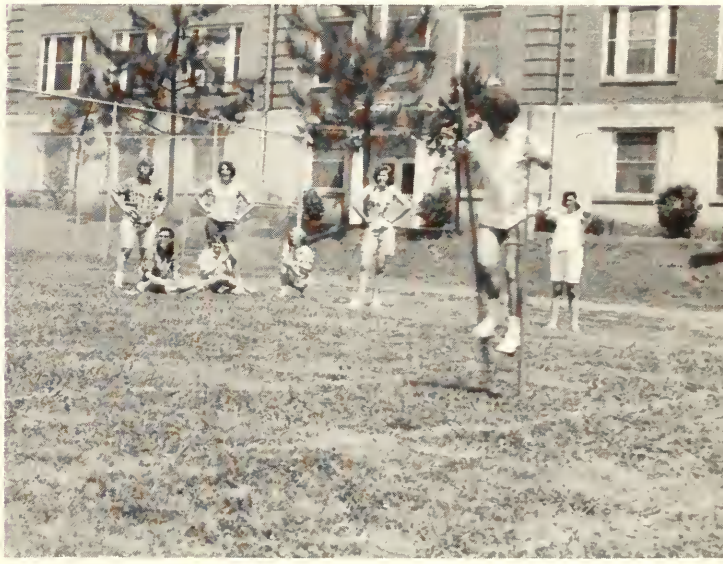
SOFTBALL

Look at the tortoises.

And the pressure is high at the Faculty-Student softball game.

Here at WC, our typical four o'clock tea.

What a cheering crowd!



FIELD DAY

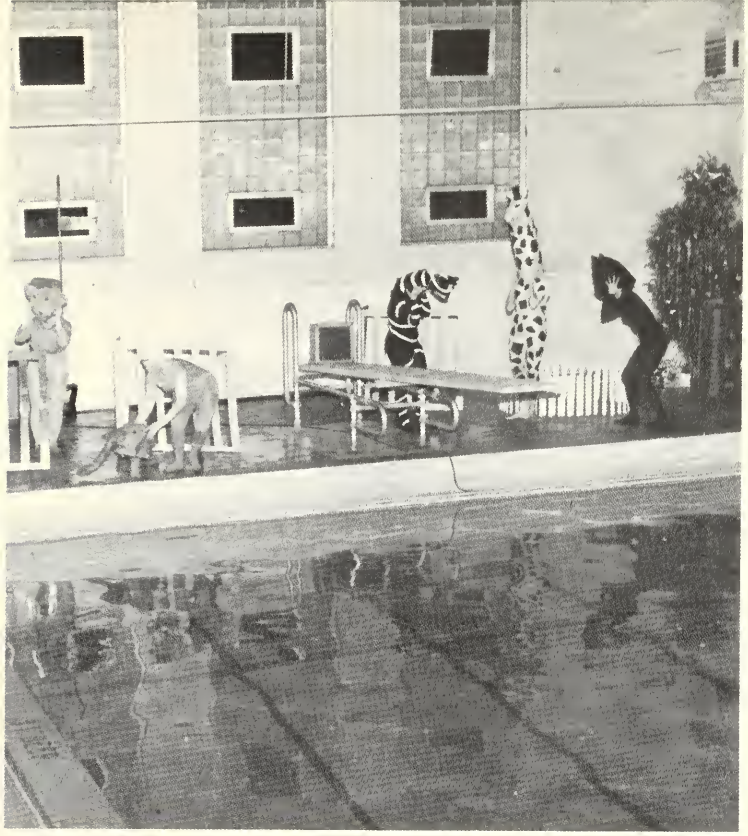
They said it couldn't be done, but—Sanford tied Beeson.

GOLF

Here we have Marianna and Gloria who play stick and ball games.

And then we have those who play Hammy Spectators.

Cheer up Martha, you are almost through.



Penguin did it again, this time with Animals.

It's just that easy, too, isn't it Connie?

Such optimism and enthusiasm—

The Major . . .

And what have we here?

Don't ever forget the food.

And the more relaxed form of exercise—Between the ears.

Ohhhh . . . tomorrow morning!!!

BASKETBALL

Such Togetherness!

There will be No sleepwalking on the court, please, Jeri.

At the Woman's College of Georgia, intellectual development is not the only important objective. There is a realization that personal development, self-discipline, and responsibility are also important purposes of education, and students are given an excellent opportunity to develop these facets of their character through the College Government Association. We are very proud of our college government because it is ours. Knowing that self-government is the best government, and self-discipline is the best discipline, the students themselves are responsible for the success of CGA. The students make the rules and set the standards under which we live and these rules and standards are enacted through our elected representatives. These representatives have impressive responsibilities. It is their duty to promote the highest standards of honor and integrity in all areas of student life, to increase the sense of responsibility in each student, and to concern themselves with the general welfare of the student body. But the individual student is the most important element of the college and of CGA and without her cooperation, her responsibility, and her initiative, CGA could not work as it does.

College Government Association is divided into three branches, each of which serves an important and distinct purpose.

The Student Council is the sounding board for opinions, new ideas, and discussion of any subject relevant to student life. Each class and the Day Student organization have representatives to student council. The dormitory presidents and floor leaders are also representatives to CGA.

Honor, personal and collective, is the basic foundation upon which college government rests. It is the responsibility of the Honor Council to instill and strengthen personal honor in every student. Every year the Honor Council presents an impressive and inspiring ceremony in which all students accept the Honor System and all of its implications as the standard and ideal which will govern their lives at the Woman's College.

The executive officers of CGA discuss the agenda before a meeting of CGA begins.

A moment of talk before CGA meeting begins.

As we are responsible for deciding and living under the standards and rules governing life at the Woman's College, so are we also responsible for helping those who occasionally falter. We are responsible not only for ourselves, but for each other.

Judiciary is the branch of CGA which is concerned with helping the students to have a clear understanding of their responsibilities as citizens of the college community and with hearing and disposing of cases involving violations of personal integrity and major social responsibilities.

The representatives to Judiciary are not interested in punishing a student but in trying to discover why she faltered and in helping her to re-evaluate her own standards.

College government succeeds on the campus of the Woman's College, but it takes constant effort and co-operation on the part of every student. A democratic society always requires extra effort and perseverance. The experience received at the Woman's College enables students to play a more knowledgeable and effective role as responsible citizens of our democratic society.

HOUSE

BOARD OF HOUSE PRESIDENTS: SEATED, Catherine Snyder, Mary Gerling, Barbie Alexander, Sherry Zeigler, STANDING, Sandra Fitzgerald, Andy McCall, Gail Avery, Fil Atwood Cathy King.

The base of CGA is found among the students living in the dormitories. The House Councils are their closest contact with CGA. These officers assume great responsibility in planning programs for the well-being of the residents and in promoting honor and responsibility in the students. When someone falters, it is their duty to help. The officers are always busy for dormitory life is the center, the nucleus, of campus life.

TERRELL B and C: Linda Osmansen, Sherry Zeigler, Grace Copeland, Mary Anne Hutchinson, Sheryl Godbolt, Judy Long.

BOARD OF CLASS PRESIDENTS

The Board of Class Presidents is another important part of CGA. The class Presidents are busy planning programs for the co-ordination of activities among the four classes. This unity between classes is part of the spirit of WCG.

JUNIOR ADVISORS

Ask any Freshman what she remembers most about her first day on campus and she will probably tell you it was meeting her Junior Advisor for the first time. The J.A.'s, composed of outstanding Juniors, are the major workers in helping to orientate the Freshmen to life at W.C. and in showing them about two important facets of that life, the Honor System and the warmth found in the relationship between two sister classes.

The Day Students Organization is one of the most important on campus. Through their organization, the day students learn that not living in a dormitory is no handicap. Day students participate in most of the phases of college life; they are active and interested members of campus activities. The Day Student Lounge is a welcome retreat for study, visiting, and catching up on the latest news.

COLON

The Colonnade is the bi-weekly campus newspaper and students run to the nearest stand when the issues come out. Dedicated to serving the student body, the Colonnade contains all the news, book reviews, prose and poetry by students, and thought provoking editorials and features. The staff members know all the trials and tribulations—and the rich rewards—associated with newspapers; the ever-listening and watching for a story, the interviewing, the pressure of deadlines, the complaints about omissions and misspelled names, and the commendations given for a job well done.

SPEC

The Spectrum staff began plans for the annual during the spring of the preceding year, layouts were drawn up, themes were considered. Work began then and it never stopped. There were hours of worry, experiment, confusion, erasing, typing, and consultation with advisors, Miss White, Mr. Gaines, and Dr. Specht. But there were hours of fun and laughter, too.

Consultation is an everyday occurrence.

TRUM

Finally, the last deadline was reached, the right feeling and the right look was achieved and the last shipment was sent off with mingled feelings of relief and pride; relief at having finished a long and hard job, and pride with having told the 1965 story of the students and their life at the Woman's College.

The Editors and Business Managers of the Spectrum and Colonnade attended a national convention in Chicago this year.

The Woman's College A Cappella Choir was organized in the fall of 1935 as a mixed chorus with cadets from the Georgia Military College and women from the Woman's College, then known as the State College for Women. Regulations at the Woman's College did not permit men and women to meet as a group on the campus. Therefore, the choir met in the basement of the Methodist Church for rehearsals during the first year. The first state tour of the choir started in the spring of 1935 on a week-end in March which broke precedent by allowing men and women students to travel in the same bus.

To attend rehearsals in the fall of 1936 the cadets were permitted to march in formation to the front gate of the campus and on the stage of Russell Auditorium. Regulations of mixed groups adjusted to the needs of the academic and social groups so that all meetings became normal so far as student relations were concerned.

The first long tour of the choir extended to New Orleans and points between in the spring of 1937. These tours of Georgia, and to New Orleans, New York City, and Miami have continued throughout the thirty years of the choir's existence.

Many traditions have evolved out of the years of organization and performance. High standards have always been maintained as to compositions and composers used. The choir has always sung from memory which has helped to perfect the ensemble to the highest degree possible. Handel's "Messiah" has been sung during the Christmas season. In 1940 the Milledgeville College Choir Guild was formed to include all persons from Georgia Military College and the Woman's College of Georgia as an Alumni group. When on tour the Choir invites all former Guild members to sing "Adoramus te" with them in concert. In the spring the choir closes the year with a rendition of an oratorio, musical, or mixed program.

In the final week of the year Homecoming is celebrated at which time all Choir Guild Members are invited to return to the campus. A picnic is held at noon followed by the Induction Service at which time Certificates of Choir membership are awarded to those who have completed the year. Choir pins and guards are given to the three-year members and an A-pin to the four year people. The final event of the day is the banquet presided over by the President. The gavel is presented to the new president of the choir and also the choir guild. Farewells are given until the same time the next year.

The final event of the year is Commencement. The Choir has always contributed the music for this event.

The Choir sings at Convocation.

ALLEGRO

Allegro means "cheerful" in Italian, and the singing of the members of Allegro quickly cheers up any audience that hears them. The members develop their skills through performances and recitals within their group. They are interested in music as an amateur field as well as a professional field, and they develop many meetings to the discussion of current developments in the area of music—further developing their sense of professional pride.

ALUMNAE ASSOCIATION

The Alumnae Association links the past with the present and helps build for the future. The "Columns", the news magazine published quarterly, keeps graduates in contact with the school and with the other members of their classes. The Alumnae Loyalty Fund has sponsored many scholarships for deserving students. A college's merit is in many ways shown in the affection its graduates feel for it and in their united strength as an alumnae association. The WCG Alumnae have rendered much service to their Alma Mater.

CLARA HASSLOCK HOME ECONOMICS CLUB

The Home Economics Club stands for professional development through club activities. Flower arrangement, religion, food for the family, or one of a hundred other subjects might be the topic for a program, all designed to increase knowledge and skill. The members also participate in state and national projects of the American Home Economics Association.

COLLEGE THEATER

Membership in College Theater comes after the accumulation of a set number of points earned by participating in plays, building sets and props, working backstage with lights, make-up, costumes. They spend long, hard hours practicing lines and movements, rehearsing, worrying—but these hours of strenuous effort culminate in flawless productions. A play written by some well-known playwright is presented each quarter. Two of the plays presented this year were "Bright Girl" and "Picnic."

Some scenes from "Picnic."

Many long hours of rehearsal go with a play.

LITERARY GUILD

The members of the Literary Guild—mostly English majors and minors—like nothing better than to get together and discuss the prose and poetry of the greats of literature. By means of widely varied programs including group discussions led by Dr. Walston, the Guild members further their knowledge of their chosen field. This year the Guild sponsored the presentation of the motion picture of Shakespeare's Henry V, an event the entire campus enjoyed.

HEALTH AND PHYSICAL EDUCATION CLUB

Health and Physical Education majors know that a sound body and a sound mind go together. The members learn more about their field by group discussion and planning activities together for fun and development of skills. The junior members highlight the year's activities by giving a banquet in honor of the senior members.

PHI BETA LAMBDA

Phi Beta Lambda is the college chapter of the Future Business Leaders of America. An organization for students who are preparing to enter careers in business or business education, it provides a good opportunity for its members to learn more about becoming good business women through participation in group projects and programs. The chapter stresses scholarship but it also promotes social fellowship among its members and faculty.

Carole Odum, Secretary, Kendall Roberts, Treasurer, and Judy Ann Smith, President.

PSYCHOLOGY CLUB

The members of the Psychology Club study the mind by asking three questions: what makes it, why does it, and how does it, work? The answers to these questions are not simple and the members learn more by hearing lectures, by group discussion, and by first hand observation at the Milledgeville State Hospital. This year the club sponsored an evaluation test of students on campus and presented the results as a paper to a meeting of the Georgia Psychological Association at Jekyll Island.

STUDENT NATIONAL EDUCATION ASSOCIATION

Student National Education Association is the professional organization for those who are planning to teach. An affiliate of the National Education Association and the Georgia Education Association, the SNEA plays a major part in developing the student's early interest and professional pride in her chosen field. Through programs of various types—films, lectures, discussion—the members learn more about their needs. One of the major highlights of the year was the visit by Mrs. Thelma Davis, President of the National Class Room Teachers Association.

ROW 1: C. Prescott, C. Ripley, A. Herrin, K. Stanford, D. Allen, L. Briscoe, A. Smallwood, D. Rogers, M. Paige, S. Jackson, H. Torbett, N. Waten. ROW 2: E. Garrard, T. Whitaker, A. Overstreet, D. Ray South, Mara Ozolins, Marie Stephens, Jackie Biggers.

ZOGORIAPHIA

Zogoriaphia is the departmental club for majors and minors in art. The club has for its purpose to make art more meaningful to the entire campus. In their eagerness and willingness to share their knowledge of art and beauty with others, the members sponsor art exhibits at the Padgett Gallery, visit exhibits held by other schools and museums, hear lectures. All are projects carried out to make "living pictures" which is the meaning of zogoriaphia.

Henrietta Luke, Alice Barron, Becky Coxe.

Bebe Collins, Bea Mallory, J. K. Smith.

Gail Thomas, Corresponding Secretary; Marianna Wilson, Treasurer; Peggy O'Neal, Recording Secretary; Martha Causey, President; Sherry Williams, Vice President.

RECREATION ASSOCIATION

The Recreation Association is the second of the three major campus organizations. Vitally concerned with the recreational needs of the student body, Rec knows that a sound and healthy body is essential in the growth of a well-rounded person. Rec sponsors many various types of activities that appeal to all types of students, whether they be athletically inclined or not. There are play days, soirees, retreats, bridge parties, dances, movies, and the skill clubs. Variety is the word for Rec.

The Folk and Square Dance Club is one of the skill clubs.

Martha Causey, President, and Miss Payne, Advisor.

Play day is one of the many activities sponsored by Rec.

Maybe they will be able to join Robin Hood one of these days.

RECREATION ASSOCIATION

The skill clubs are a very important part of the Recreation Association. Through working in skill clubs, a student learns more about dance, or swimming, or acrobatics, whichever is her choice. But these clubs are not just for fun. The attainment of any skill takes long and tedious hours of work and practice, but the rewards and benefits more than compensate. She has become more graceful, more adept, and she has a well-trained body.

In the spring, a young woman's fancy turns to . . . volleyball.

Officers—Connie McCollough, Sharon Shead, Anne Herrin.

MODERN DANCE

The members of the Modern Dance Club are undoubtedly some of the most graceful and accomplished girls on campus. The members compose and execute their own dances which provide them with the opportunity to develop and enjoy their personal creativity. The dances reflect all emotions—gaiety, sadness, happiness, despair, loneliness—the expressions of man himself. The grace, perfection and beauty of a dance come after long, long hours of arduous practice, always the criterion of achievement.

The attributes of a Penguin member are fluidity, strength, and grace, the attributes of any skilled artist. Synchronized swimming is not easy even at its most elementary level, but the swimmers are so graceful and precise in their movements and interpretations that it gives the impression of ease. The members of Penguin often participate with other colleges in "play days" which give them opportunities to learn more. Among colleges participating this year were Agnes Scott and Florida State University.

TENNIS CLUBS

The Tennis Club functions only during the spring quarter, but the members are really busy that quarter promoting sportsmanship and technical skill. The highlight of the tennis season is the Student-Faculty Tournament, an occasion that really brings out the crowds.

Who says girls are weak?

The members of the Tumbling Club have much in common with the Jack who jumped over the candle-stick—all are nimble and quick. The annual demonstration of their acrobatic skills leaves the audience breathless and with an odd sense of self-awkwardness. It looks so easy when the tumblers do it—but as everyone knows, practice makes perfect.

YOUNG WOMEN'S CHRISTIAN ASSOCIATION

Daphne Dukes, President

The Young Women's Christian Association is the third of the major organizations. Y is very much concerned with the intellectual as well as the spiritual and social life of the students. Y is non-denominational and it seeks to answer the needs of students of all faiths. The Y's program is highly varied and it diffuses itself unobtrusively into every area of campus life, directly or indirectly. There are informal breakfasts, Y-Forums, Vespers, student-faculty teas. Any subject may be discussed during any of these—the Bible, or politics, or folk music.

Executive

Mr. Callahan, Y Advisor, spoke about the 1964 Presidential campaign at many political forums.

The Student-Faculty Coffees are a delightful break in a busy schedule.

YOUNG WOMEN'S CHRISTIAN ASSOCIATION

The Y's responsibilities are many. Religious Focus Week is a major undertaking, but there are also the Y Sister program, the Scholarship Dance, the World University Service Week, and many other activities—many responsibilities, but responsibility is a facet of life at W.C., and service is a special facet of the Y.

BAPTIST STUDENT UNION

The Baptist Union in coherence with the State Hospital sponsors many good recreational programs there for the adolescents. Occasionally a few of their members are eligible to participate in the Home Mission Board Summer Missionaries. Besides these widening activities the BSU enjoys Sunday night meals and programs with a speaker twice monthly and devotionals which are held twice weekly.

CANTERBURY

Canterbury is an association of students from The Woman's College and Georgia Military College, sponsored by St. Stephen's Episcopal Church. Its weekly meetings and activities foster an atmosphere of warm fellowship and encouragement as each student seeks to find meaning in daily life. The programs include discussions, speakers, and forums, as well as social and service projects. Work is presently underway to renovate a house adjacent to the campus to be used for all Canterbury activities. The Rector of St. Stephen's serves as the group chaplain and advisor.

Members spend a hard day's work at The Canterbury House.

WESLEY FOUNDATION

The Wesley Foundation house is one of the busiest places in town. The Methodist students flock here and find an answer to any need—for fun, food, worship, fellowship, and spiritual guidance. This year the Wesley Foundation sponsored a state-wide mental health seminar, a project that resulted from its members' weekly service project at the State Hospital. The Foundation also participated in sending delegates to the National Student Movement Conference in Lincoln, Nebraska.

President Beth Taylor and Director Bert Gratigny welcome visitors.

Carol Robertson, Becky Bohanon, Cynthia Marsh, Stephanie Fleming, Faithie Fowler, Pauline Purcell, Carolyn Krieger, Marianne Jarrell, Sandra Grist.

WESTMINSTER FELLOWSHIP

Sunday nights are involved with preparing the evening meal for the young people and college students. For the meetings many fine speakers are invited to talk to the Fellowship. The last Sunday night of each quarter a special communion for the students is held. By visiting in the homes of the Presbyterian members, the members are able to become better acquainted with them. Through these activities the members hope to spread Christian influence, not only in the college community, but also in the surrounding community.

Members cook for the Sunday night meals.

Mr. Callahan and Mrs. MacCleod enjoy being with the students.

DELTA PHI BETA

Delta Phi Beta is the honorary sorority whose members are interested in the area of elementary and secondary science education. This chapter sponsors exhibits for the campus students and a science convention for high schools.

FEATURES

Convocation marks the official beginning of a new academic year. The impressive service begins with a processional of faculty, followed by the Senior class. The distinguished Mr. Waights G. Henry, President of LaGrange College, was the guest speaker for this year.

Getting acquainted begins with a pleasant reception at the Mansion . . .

. . . New students have a chance to meet and get to know faculty members, Dr. and Mrs. Lee, and each other.

Open-house at the Y apartment also welcomes the new students and makes them feel at home.

Freshmen no sooner arrive than they begin the mad rush of orientation—getting to know about college life and getting to know each other.

An interesting part of Freshman orientation is Rat Week, beginning with the capping service, the initiation, on through the parties and meetings, and finally to the end, and a well deserved rest.

Beautiful spring weather, the fun of a Friday night hootenanny, the magic of Spring Dance, and the excitement of the crowning of Miss Aurora—all combined for a wonderful weekend.

Memories of Fall Dance haunt us still—dreamy music, lovely gowns, handsome men,—and refreshments.

A rainy night in January, the warm glow of candlelight in the Pink Dining Hall, the romantic strains of music from Nancy and the Bachelors—this was the setting for the Winter Dance.

Highlight of Winter Dance week-end—concert by The Hunters . . .

. . . then, on to dancing and more enjoyment.

GOLDEN SLIPPER

Golden Slipper is many things to us. It is planning sessions, pep rallies, song meetings; it is hammering, sawing, painting, stuffing; it is posters, displays, costumes, backdrop, songs; it is all this and more. It is something that can only be felt by actually becoming a part of it. We call this something —Slipper Spirit.

This was Golden Slipper, 1964-65. Tireless effort, ingenuity, laughter, and tears—these Shaped It to Glory. And its message is forever Told With Bells. It is a message that echoes through the years and resounds in every heart. It is a message of friendship, sportsmanship, and love.

Dr. Lee making the presentation to Mr. Carmichael.

HONORS DAY

The thirteenth Distinguished Service Award from the Woman's College was awarded to James V. Carmichael, president of Scripto, Inc. The presentation was made at the annual Honors Day program, Spring Quarter, in Russell Auditorium.

The Seniors who had just been elected to membership in Phoenix were honored also at the services.

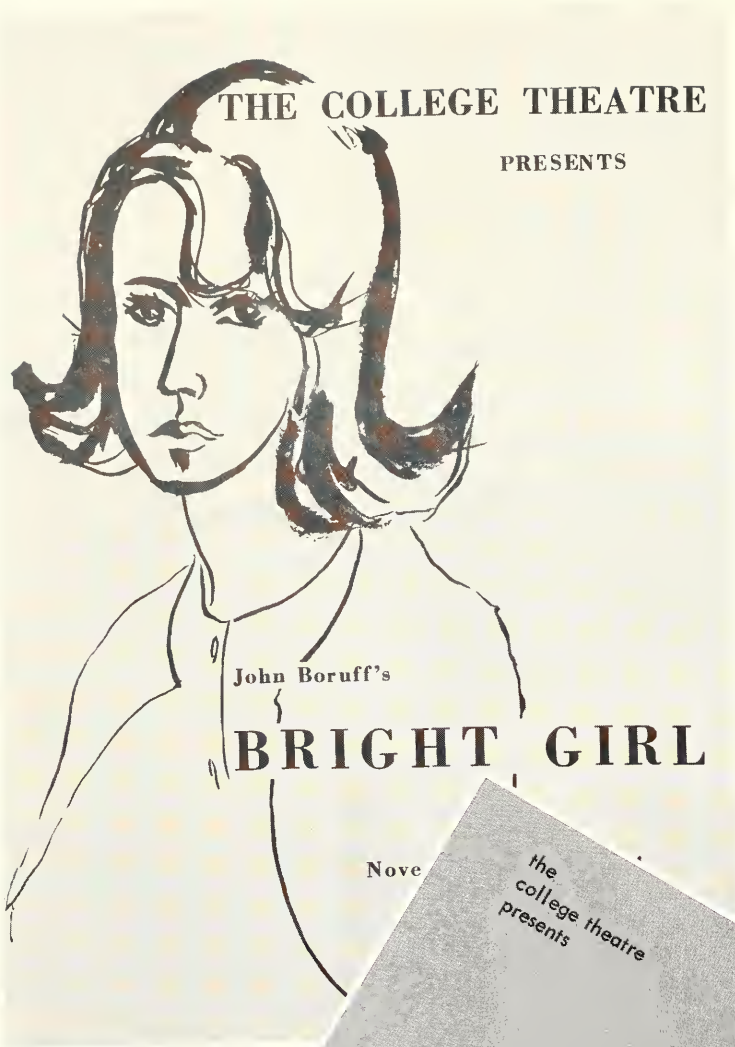
COLLEGE THEATRE PRODUCTIONS



Male dancers form the Soviet Republic of Georgia are noted for a unique ability to dance on their toes. The two Georgians shown here (who dance on point without any help from padded boots) are part of the all star company of the RADUGA DANCERS.

Eleanor Vlasova is among the first stars of Moscow's famed Stanislavski Theatre to visit the United States.

Shamil Yagudin, leading dancer of the Bolshoi Ballet, has mystified North American critics by an absolute defiance of gravity. He is no less spectacular in folk dance.

Dr. Max Noah

Each year the Christmas season features the joint efforts of school and community in presenting Handel's "Messiah." Dr. Max Noah does a superb job of directing the production. This year the Woman's College was joined by the choir from Mercer University to give a really marvelous performance.

THE MESSIAH

THE ATLANTA SYMPHONY ORCHESTRA

Winter Quarter features the annual concert of the Atlanta Symphony Orchestra. Under the brilliant direction of Mr. Henry Sopkin, the Orchestra brings us a night of fine music, both entertaining and inspiring.

W.U.S. To Present Auction

The World University Service, a program designed for mutual assistance among universities of the world, will be featured at the Woman's College the week of February 22. An auction, to be held in the Student Union at chapel period on Tuesday of that week, will feature unusual foreign items; for instance, a letter from the French government and a gift presented by J. C. Jennings of England's House of Commons--who will be remembered by some students as a guest faculty member two years ago. Also, there is to be sold a White House post card from Lady Bird Johnson and an item from Gov. Carl Sanders. These are only a few of the articles for auction. A minimum of fity cents has been set on each of the items.

The money received will be sent to the office of W.U.S. where it will be used in various projects in colleges and schools throughout the world. Some of the aid given to foreign education programs in former years include building dormitories in India and health centers in Korea and Sudan, donating equipment for the Nicaragua Medical School, starting a library in Basutoland, and appropriating scholarships or emergency aid to many other countries. Besides the auction, of which many items for sale will be furnished by faculty, students also have the opportunity to help by making personal contributions.

Mary Simons, W. U. S. worker, has announced that this all-important cause will be further explained to W.C. students at a special chapel program on Monday, February 22.

A CAPELLA CHOIR

WC Choir Begins Short Tour Friday

The annual tour of the WCG A Capella Choir begins Friday, February 19 for a concert-filled five days including towns from College Park in northern Georgia to Monticello in northern Florida. The girls will follow a tight schedule as they perform in College Park on Friday; Albany on Saturday; Thomasville and Monticello, Florida on Sunday; Fitzgerald on Monday; and Talbatton and Buena Vista on Tuesday. Wednesday evening, February 24 is a home concert in Russell Auditorium, the last concert of the tour.

Hosts for the choir will be the First Methodist Church in College Park; Sherwood Baptist Church in Albany; the First Baptist Church in Thomasville; the Methodist Church in Monticello, Florida; Central Methodist Church in Fitzgerald; Talbatton High School in Talbatton; and the First Baptist Church in Buena Vista.

Choir Guild members will welcome the choir in each town and are invited to join the 1965 members in the singing of "Adoramus Te."

With a final performance in Russell Auditorium at the Woman's College the tour ends. Immediately following the eight o'clock concert, a choir reception will be given in Porter Auditorium.

Newspaper Staff To Attend GCPA At University Of Ga.

Several members of the Colonnade staff will attend the Georgia Collegiate Press Association meeting in Athens, Georgia. This meeting will be held at the University of Georgia on February 26 and 27. There will be several discussion units dealing with various areas of newspaper work. Prior to this meeting all Georgia college newspapers were given the opportunity to enter a contest. The winners of the contest will receive awards at a banquet to be held Saturday afternoon. The Woman's College will be well represented at this press meeting.

Y Talks Sex

Thursday afternoon, February 25, there will be a Y forum concerning sex morality on campus. Some of the possible topics for discussion will be "Is there a problem?" "Who should handle these problems?" "Possible solutions" and others. The discussion, started by representatives of several dorms, will be in Terrell Rec Hall at 4:15.

The Colonnade To Purchase New Equipment

The editor of the Colonnade, Paula Arnold, has announced that the newspaper is in the process of purchasing some new equipment for the purpose of improving the student paper. This new equipment will expand the need for student workers--all of these are not required to, be skillful writers as there is a need for typists, proofreaders, and circulators as well as for writers. In addition to these, the new equipment demands some specialized typists who, because of the importance of the job, will be paid to operate an IBM machine. All interested students are asked to contact the Editor, Box 939.

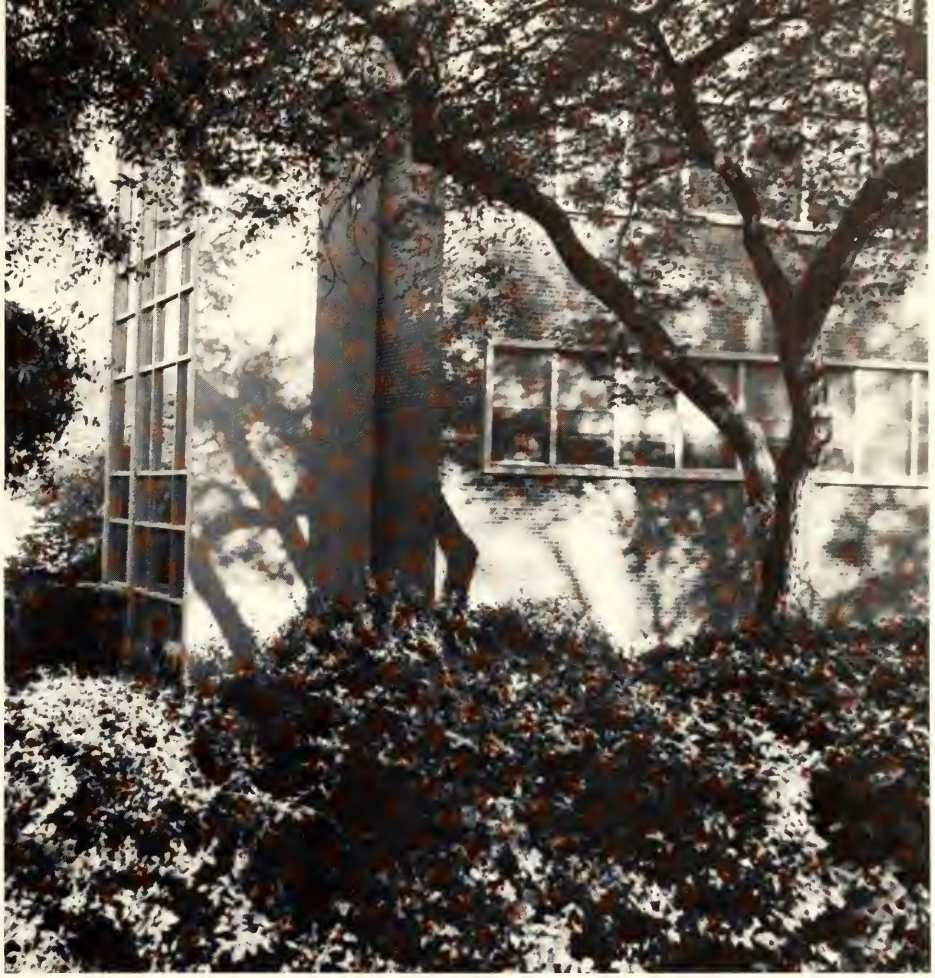
Religious Values In The Fine Arts — A Retreat

The Y.W.C.A. is sponsoring a retreat at Lake Laurel on February 26-27 which will carry out the theme, "Religious Values In The Fine Arts." Participating members in the program will be Dr. Betty Poindexter, dance; Miss Aline Cantrell, art; Miss Quillian White, music; and Miss Quillian White and Mr. James A. Callahan, novel. The cost is 50 cents per person. Sign-up sheets are now available in the Post Office. Interested people are asked to meet at the Circle at 4:00 p.m.

The vicious tornado which swept through Milledgeville in December, 1964, left quite an impression on the campus of the Woman's College. Many trees were uprooted, windows were blown out, TV aerials were crushed, huge columns were displaced and the most prominent damage—the tennis court lights were swept to the ground. Luckily the tornado struck during the Christmas holidays while the campus was virtually deserted.

Even though the tornado has passed and everything except the tennis court lights has been restored, there are still many evidences of that harrowing event which will be present for quite some time to come.

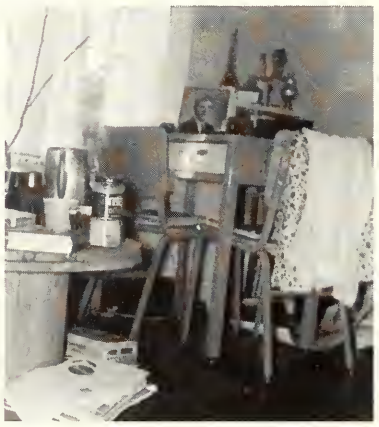
The front campus remains elegantly simple and well-kept in spite of the tornado which uprooted several of the large shade trees. Here one can enjoy the fruits of nature and a feeling of peace and contentment.



To the traditional look of old red brick buildings with their ornate columns, wooden floors, and creaky stairs have been added new modern buildings with tile floors and acoustical ceilings, such as Herty Hall.

This is the old and the new of the Woman's College. Several of the traditional buildings are being remodeled or torn down to make way for the sleek, ultra-modern ones, such as the New Dorm. Someday WCG may challenge rivals for modernity and simplicity.

Going off to college poses many problems. One has to learn her way around campus and accustom herself to a new and different environment. Perhaps the most difficult problem to surmount was learning to associate the correct names with the correct new faces. With the aid of a name card, even this problem was minimized.



The first few days in college are hectic ones. Making new friends, becoming adjusted to new roommates, unpacking and organizing, learning the endless rules which one must follow, attending numerous dorm meetings, all of these aspects comprise a new way of life for a WCG young lady.

Whether on the job, during class, or in a few extra minutes that have accumulated, a WC girl always manages to put her time to the best advantage.

One of the most important and most enjoyable aspects of college life is dating. Some of the girls choose to date boys from the nearby military college, while many other girls have steady beaus at home. The Student Union is a favorite "hang-out" for the date-set after seeing a good movie in town.

Lake Laurel, a private lake belonging to the Woman's College, is placid and serene, the perfect place to have a retreat or just to "get away from it all." The cool, inviting water and the weatherbeaten lodge beckon to all who are a part of WC.

As graduation draws nigh, great anticipation swells among the seniors who will soon teach eager youngsters. The Peabody Laboratory School provides an excellent opportunity for student teaching and learning. Planned recreational activities are also provided for the children by the students at WC.

PAPER MATE

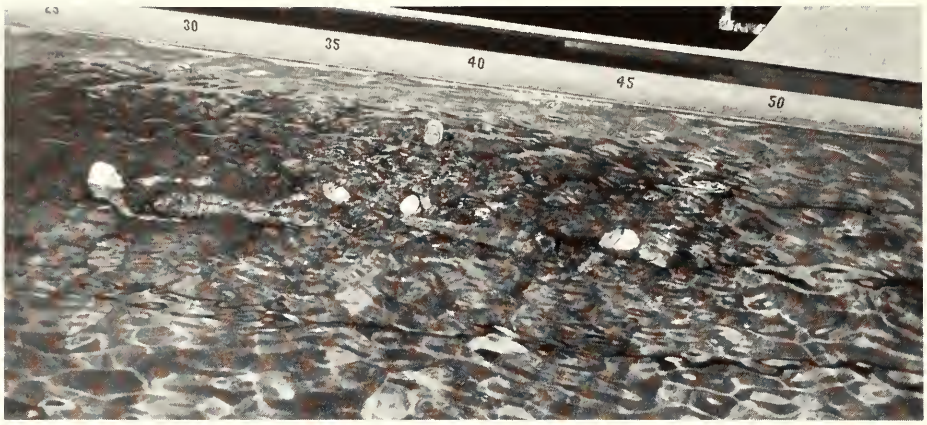
Coca-Cola

Whether eating in the Student Union, the college dining room, or on the front lawn, one always encounters friendly faces and interesting conversation. In the Student Union Mrs. Harrison, Mrs. Rogers, and Mrs. Kidd are always there to accommodate you and to offer a welcoming smile.



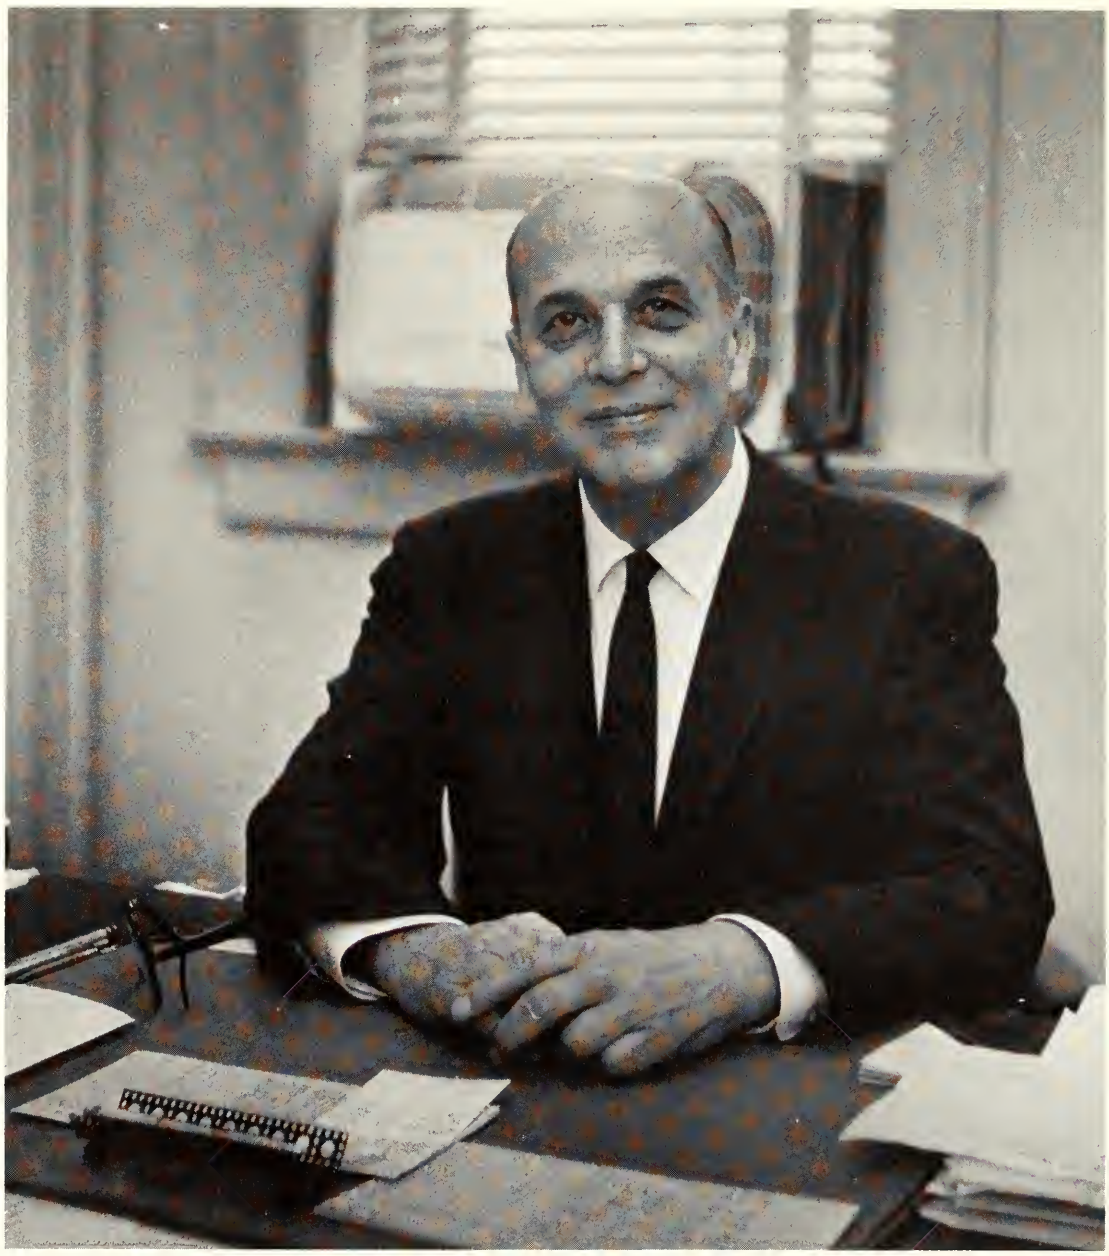
Everyone enjoys sports and entertainment, whether she be an active member or a spectator. The Woman's College offers many sports such as swimming, tennis, archery, and even football just for fun. Sponsored by different organizations are activities such as forum discussions, guest speakers, hootenannies, and the annual hike. Among these activities every girl finds something of interest.

EXIT
EXIT

No boys? That's right. Girls at WC find that it is more conducive to study without boys. Also, the relationships between the girls are more congenial and much closer. Most of the students discover that it is fun to share the warm friendships that aren't found elsewhere.

Meeting formally or informally, being alone or with others, any time of the day or year, one will find friendly and understanding girls on the Woman's College campus.

IN APPRECIATION



Dean MacMahon

Your sensitive, yet firm touch has transformed learning into a vital and imaginative art. Because you delight in the thrust of ideas, you succinctly instill in us a dissatisfaction with the facile and a desire to search for deeper levels of learning. You have stimulated us to see knowledge not as a mere accumulation of facts to be memorized and soon forgotten, but rather as the assimilation and evaluation of concepts through questioning, doubting, even fearing at times until we can approach truth, or a glimpse of truth.

IN MEMORIAM

Flannery O'Connor won wide acclaim as a gifted writer, and we admired her for that. But upon meeting her, we ceased to think of her as the authoress, and came to know her as a charming and inspiring person. She was utterly natural and disarmingly frank: she said once that she wrote because she did it well. She had a rather pensive expression, but when she smiled her face seemed to be irradiated by a brilliant and beautiful light. Being with her was a refreshing experience.

We miss Flannery O'Connor, and we will long remember her.

Our Thanks . . .

Many long hours, barrels of elbow grease, and somewhat spasmodic inspiration preceded the final amalgamation of these pages. Now here we sit, pencils dulled and minds likewise, with hope that you, the students, will long enjoy the memories the 1965 Spectrum recalls in these few pages.

To you, the Staff goes our deepest thanks for your co-operation and endless hours of work. Without you this book would never have been completed.

To our advisors, Miss Quillian White, Dr. Joseph Specht, and Mr. George Gaines, we owe our deepest respect and gratitude for your help and patience. The proofreading, financial and art problems would never have gone so smoothly had you not been here.

Warm appreciations go to Mr. L. G. Trimmier, Jr., of Gaspar-Ware Photographers and Mr. William Brandon of American Yearbook Company, who helped us meet each of our deadlines.

And last, our thanks goes to the student body, faculty, and administration for the co-operation you have given to us. We sincerely hope that within the 1965 Spectrum you will find some special memory. If you do, our work has been worthwhile and rewarding.
